

The health care sector

Vacancy as per January 2021 until December 2021 (12 months)

Project description

The European Solidarity Corps volunteer will work at Van Neynsel Stichting. Van Neynsel Stichting is a non-profit (foundation) health care provider in 's-Hertogenbosch, Vught and surroundings. With their expertise, they provide care at home and from their residential care centers in 's-Hertogenbosch and Vught. More than 1000 people work at Van Neynsel, plus more than 400 volunteers. Van Neynsel Stichting is a healthcare provider in the region with expertise in dealing with unconventional behavior by old people with dementia. Van Neynsel intends to give valuable care for their clients, and to be a pleasant organization for the professional and volunteer to work for. They put effort in their employees and volunteers to connect them, improve the team spirit and take care of personal development. It is an innovative organization. The European Solidarity Corps volunteer will try together with experienced volunteers to improve physical activity for their "clients" (patients). This can be sports in general but also activities at the table such as ball games. Moreover, improving experiences through listening music is important. The ESC volunteer will help to organize creative activities as well. This is to improve the domestic feeling and have extra attention for the clients. During the project the activities can be extended according to the talents of the ESC volunteers.
